

Learning Across Liberation Theologies

Exploring the links between liberation theology, pedagogy, and activism

Hosted by the Latin American Philosophy of Education Society
(LAPES)

Sponsored by the Rutgers Division of Diversity, Inclusion, and Community Engagement

*The Symposium organizers also wish to thank: The Rutgers Program in Comparative Literature,
DePaul University, and West Chester University*

October 16, 17, 23, 24, 2020
6-8 pm (Eastern)
5-7pm (Central)

Hosted on Zoom here
Streamed live on YouTube here

Registration: <https://bit.ly/2FoerN5>

SCHEDULE

1) Friday October 16

Sanctuary Movements: Immigration and Liberation

Moderator: Rafael Vizcaíno, DePaul University

Speakers:

- Chris Tirres, DePaul University – Keynote
- Kayla Neumeyer and Ethan Aronson, Never Again Action
- Seth Kaper-Dale, Reformed Church of Highland Park

2) Saturday October 17

Liberation Theologies in the Classroom: Resisting “Educational Praxes of Domination” in the Community College

Moderator: Sneha Khaund, Rutgers University

Speakers:

- Douglas Ficek, University of New Haven
- William Koch, BMCC, CUNY
- Rosario Torres-Guevara, BMCC, CUNY
- Jose Haro, BMCC, CUNY

3) Friday October 23

Caribbean/Latin American Liberation Theologies

Moderator: Conor Tomás Reed, CUNY

Speakers:

- Sylvia Marcos, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México and Universidad Iberoamericana – Keynote
- Stephanie M. Huevo, Fordham University
- Tito Mitjans Alayon, CESMECA, UNICACH

4) Saturday October 24

Black Radical Tradition

Moderator: Jason Wozniak, West Chester University

Speakers:

- Mark L. Taylor, Princeton Theological Seminary – Keynote
- Rashad Moore, First Baptist Church of Crown Heights and Columbia University
- Sharon Gramby-Sobukwe, Eastern University